MOSMAN – ITS OVALS AND CRICKETERS

The History of the MOSMAN CRICKET CLUB

By John Hiscox

The Mosman Cricket Club celebrated its centenary in 2008. For one hundred years the club has sought to develop players and to play the game in a spirited manner. The reasons for writing a history are many and varied. In Mosman's case it is to record the deeds of its players and supporters on the grounds and ovals within its boundaries over the last one hundred years.

Mosman has produced some wonderful players. Some have come to the area and then the club, whilst others have grown up there. Many players and identities have wonderful stories to tell. Amongst the players whom the club can hold up high as playing in the true Mosman spirit are Hal Hooker, Stan McCabe, Hammy Love, Ken Gulliver, Keith Carmody, Ian Craig, Gordon Rorke, Doug Ford, David Colley, Barry Knight, Allan Border and of recent years, Brett and Shane Lee. There are countless others who have made valued contributions as officials, scorers, managers, committeemen and supporters. In all, the club has stood for the good of the game.

John Hiscox, who first played for the club in the 1949-50 season, has spent an enormous amount of time researching, inquiring, interviewing and investigating many aspects of the club and its history and tracing the origins of the club from its earliest days.

The result is Mosman – Its Ovals and Cricketers – The History of the Mosman Cricket Club. All supporters of the club or those interested in the development and growth of a Sydney grade club will not want to miss out on purchasing a copy of the club's history. Details on how to purchase a copy are set out below.

If you would like to be a special part of the club's history then a copy of the limited edition may be of interest. The limited edition is made of leather, has a book marker ribbon reflecting the club's colours and will have the original signatures of ten of the club's prominent players with facsimile signatures of four other team of the century players.
